Swedes Uncover Spy

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, March 12 (UPI)—A Stockholm newspaper said today Swedish security police have uncovered another military spy.

The government refused to comment on the report.

The newspaper, Stockholm's Tidningen, which often reflects government opinion, said no arrest has been made so far.

It said the spying was aimed against the Swedish Navy, but said it was "unclear" whether it had any connection with the celebrated spy case of Col. Stig Wennerstroem.

It said the case was of "important proportions," but not "comparable" with the Wennerstroem case.

Col. Wennerstroem, 56, former Air Attache to Moscow and Washington was arrested last June and charged with spying for Russia for 15 years. His trial is expected to begin next month.

Sources said Col. Wennerstroem sold many NATO secrets to the Russians and seriously compromised Sweden's Army and Air Force.
